I am the curriculum specialist here at Breckinridge County High School. Prior to taking this position, I worked as an English and Spanish teacher from 2005-2019. I was also the English department chair and Academic Team coach throughout this time.

I received my Bachelors degree in Secondary English Education from Murray State University in December 2005. Later, I received my Masters degree in English literature from Western Kentucky University in 2013. Then, I completed my Rank I with Supervisor of Instruction, Principal, and Director of Pupil Personnel certifications from Asbury University in 2018.
